

Until Help Arrives

A New FEMA Class (Free)

Back by popular demand on Saturday, February 8, 2020 from 9:00 a.m. 12:00 noon, a newly developed FEMA class called “Until Help Arrives” is being held at the Georgetown Fire Department. It is being sponsored by Redding CERT (Community Emergency Response Team) and the Georgetown Fire District.

It will teach how to act quickly and do the most good should you come upon a situation where help is needed. To the victim a few easy steps taken by a by-stander can make all the difference.

The class will also include hands-on instruction on how to use a fire extinguisher.

The class will be instructed by Jim Mecozzi, a life-time Redding resident, a Georgetown Fire District Commissioner, and a Lieutenant for 21 years at the Stratford Fire Department.

The class is open to the public and light refreshments will be served.

Registration is required. Call the Redding Health Department at 203-938-2559 or email health@townofreddingct.org to register.

You are the help until help arrives.
